Mount Tamalpais College would not exist if not for our supporters' generosity and belief in the transformative power of education. The college is funded entirely by philanthropy and charges no fees or tuition.

“Hearing the students read their papers, seeing the bonds of friendship and respect they have for each other against the background of a life of incarceration, the sense of freedom and joy and of the students’ transcending their circumstances are experiences that stay with me.”

“I’m a community college instructor, so contributing to educational programs is important to me. And I want to do my own part to make reparations to the black community, and Mount Tamalpais College is a perfect program to address these goals while serving the incarcerated.”
